PRESBYTERIAN CEMETERY, ROSWELL.

(Behind the Presbyterian Church and School House)

In this Cemetery lie some of Roswell's leading early citizens, most of whom came from Georgia's Coastal Counties:

, Francis Robert Goulding: clergyman, inventor, Author of "The Young Marooners", and other juvenal classics.

Barrington King (1798--1866), Roswell King's son: First Settler;
President of Roswell Factories, and his wife, Catherine Margaret Nephew King (1804--1887);

Nathaniel A. Pratt, D.D. (1796--1879), graduate of Yale University and Princeton Theological Seminary; founder of Roswell Presbyterian Church--its Pastor for forty years--his Wife, Catherine Barrington
King Pratt (1810--1894) ;

Archibald Smith (1801--1886) and his wife, Annie Margaret Smith (1807--1887).

In the Old Cemetery, at the top of the hill, lie:

Roswell King (1765--1844), Founder of Roswell, for whom the Town was named;

John Dunwody, Esq. (1786--1858) and his wife, Jane Bulloch
Dunwody (1788--1856);

James S. Bulloch (1793--1849), Major in the Mexican War --father of Martha "Miss Kittie" Bulloch, wife of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mary Anderson, wife of J.T. Ashley, Sept. 18, 1842--Jan. 4, 1903.

Kate L. Ashley, 1870--1949

Robert A. Ashley, 1870--1946.

OLD ROSWELL CEMETERY - ON HILL

Roswell King born Windsor, Conn. May 3, 1765, died Cobb County, Ga. February 15, 1844. Founder of the village that bears his name. John Dunwoody, Esqr., born January 13, 1786 and Jane Bullock, his wife, born April 8, 1788. They were united in marriage the 7th of June, 1808. Separated by her death on the 30th of June, 1856, they were reunited to part no more on the 6th of June, 1858. Their children "sorrowing, yet rejoicing," have erected this monument to mark the place where their bodies repose. Their virtues are entrusted to the memories of those who loved them. Their spirits are committed to the charge of a faithful redeemer.
